

12 : Oct : 1900

My dear Frank.

I am glad to have good accounts from you. As to the £100 you had better draw a cheque for the amount, and send it to Cox's for the credit of your account. I have not time to say more, as the post is going, and I have been interrupted in what I meant to write.

Your aff^{te}

Dad